

lakewoodhomefestival.com

NOV 11-13, 2011

What started as a fundraiser back in 1976 to purchase playground equipment for kindergarten children, became a community-wide event benefiting Lakewood's Elementary, Middle and High School. Since its inception, the festival has pumped more than $1 million into the schools.

HOMES WITH STORIES THAT WILL THRILL YOUR READERS

The set for Pamela Ewing's home on the original TV show Dallas!

Original Estate of Herbert Marcus!

1936 State Fair Centennial Celebration Home!

1926 Tudor "Risen From the Ashes"!

Plus 3 New Homes:

Eclectic Farmhouse

Detailed, Spanish Colonial

Modern White Stucco

For more information, contact Kim Smith, LECPTA Home Tour Publicity
marketingks@msn.com or 214-707-5736

6843 Lorna Lane

1936 Art Deco home wonderfully restored; one of seven homes built for the Texas Centennial celebration (along with Fair Park!)

6730 Bob O Link

Unique “eclectic farmhouse” built by More Design+Build (but looks vintage) with modern flair and farmhouse charm.

6735 Westlake

Majestic Tudor built in 1927, the original Herbert Marcus estate and former film set of Pamela Ewing's house on TV show Dallas.

6729 Lake Circle

Modern white stucco built in 2007 with open, circular flow; stained concrete floors, and vast windows that let the outdoors in.

3613 Vintage Place

New home built by Vintage Contemporaries that holds the charm, sophistication, and details of Spanish Colonial architecture.

6870 Tokalon

Breathtaking 1926 Tudor overlooking beautiful Tokalon Ave with traditional details and antiques that amaze around every corner.

NOV 11-13, 2011

Homeowner Interviews
Architect Interviews
Tour Planner and Sponsor
Interviews
Photographs

For more information,
contact Kim Smith,
LECPTA Home Tour
Publicity

marketingks@msn.com or 214-707-5736